Future Champions Golf Events to be Featured in Global Golf Post

Global Golf Post aims to feature more top junior golf results and have found the FCG World Series events to be some of the largest and most competitive events in the country. Global Golf Post will feature a 3 to 4 paragraph recap of every 2014 World Series event in their online publication. "Global Golf Post is the first designed-for-digital weekly golf news publication in the world...it offers golf consumers a remarkable online experience, much like reading a traditional magazine or newspaper."

Director of Consumer Marketing, Rob Coleman, gives his take on the FCG features; "Global Golf Post supports all endeavors to grow the game of golf, especially through junior golf. Future Champions Golf has proven to be among the leaders in developing young golfers, and the FCG World Series tournaments offer first class competition for rising and talented players."

With field sizes ranging from 80 to 650 players, the 2014 FCG World Series schedule is shaping up to be one of the largest junior golf tournament series in the world. Events will be held at premier golf destinations such as, Horseshoe Bay Resort (Texas), Pumpkin Ridge (Oregon) and PGA West (California). Founder of Future Champions Golf, Chris Smeal is excited about the upcoming schedule; "I believe our 2014 World Series schedule has placed our events at some of the best destinations for golf in the West Coast. Now with Global Golf Post featuring these events, we hope to make more people aware of these great events and see field sizes increase."
