About Future Champions Golf

Founded in 2003 by PGA Teaching Professional Chris Smeal, PGA

A proven leader in the development of junior golfers into college level athletes.

The Future Champions Golf program (FCG) has quickly become one of the most premier junior golf programs worldwide. FCG features the highest quality in golf instruction and training programs for all levels of players.

In 2007 we launched a tournament program that now features players from around the world competing over multiple events. The tournament program now has three series featuring the Callaway World Series

(6 Majors) the Golfweek Jr Tour powered by Future Champions Golf, and the Callaway Mini Tour.
